

The Beautiful Gulf Coast

Biloxi and Ocean Springs.

Mississippi

If you would revel among the most beautiful of shade trees—the monarchs of the South, and Live Oaks—go to Ocean Springs, Mississippi. Drink from its Mineral Springs and enjoy the ozone from the stretch of shell road along the sound.

Live Simply among its plain but hospitable small hotels or private boarding houses, you will never forget the view of the Gulf you have had, or the rejuvenating atmosphere that you have enjoyed during your stay.

Biloxi might be called the Riviera of the Gulf Coast. It is was settled by Iberville in 1699. It was part of the Louisiana possessions and was the first colony planted by the French in the South.

Yes, it is true that you will find there the old civilization and the new. Truthfully we may also say that it is one of the most restful, healthful and charming resorts on the North American continent.

We have found it most delightful just following the Christmas holidays in Mid-winter; but it is also most agreeable in the summer time, as the breezes from the Gulf of Mexico fan the shore at some time of each day.

Many legends have been centered at Biloxi, which doubtless had their origin from the time of the Indian to later civilization. A grand old oak, with gnarled and twisted branches and hanging moss stands in the old churchyard of the picturesque church of the Redeemer—it has been the basis of many a legend and verse.

How beautiful are those homes along the beach where nature has been undisturbed. Beyond the narrow streets of Old Biloxi one can skirt again the shell road, pass the "home for guests" and the lighthouse—and be a welcome guest also at one or more of the beautiful private villas lined along the shell road. Several of these have their own private piers with boat-house or bathing-house at the end of the pier, way out on the water. Boating, bathing and fishing are recreations that belong to the out-of-door life of Biloxi nearly all the year round.

Biloxi is not wholly dependent upon tourists. It has an all-the-year-round population. A Tourist Club is sustained during the winter months from a colony largely of middle states northern people who center there yearly from mid-winter to early spring. It is an attractive adjunct to Biloxi during that time. Never has the writer seen more glorious sunsets or more beautiful moonlights. What more fascinating than the silvery sheen in the wake of a white sailboat as she silently glides along. Her hold may be filled with oysters which she may be carrying to be unloaded at some oyster houses a mile or so around the bend of the bay; or it may be that with Schrimp from deeper waters she is laden. If you happen to be the next morning, where the boat is being unloaded you will find it a process worth seeing. Inside of a long building all is activity—men, women and children are employed by the hundreds in opening the oyster shells. The oysters are first dropped into tubs of water and the last process is when they are placed in cases which are sealed and neatly labeled and then are ready for the market.

There are homes for the workers and their families who live near the plants or oyster factories. There is also a Settlement House not far away with beautiful trees about it, with kindergarten and playgrounds for the children, who are thus cared for while their mothers are at work at the oyster houses. The season is short and consequently the earnings are for only a short time of the year.

Again and again from the cold rigid winters of the north we shall seek the shore of Beautiful Biloxi and perhaps now and then for a respite in the summer, also.

So when you make up your route for trips South henceforth, we advise you by all means to include Biloxi or Ocean Springs.—Carlyle Porter.

These are two of the popular and attractive resorts on the beautiful Gulf Coast and reached by the modern steel passenger trains of the LOUISVILLE & NASHVILLE RAILROAD.

THE ADAM COUNTY NEWS CALLED HER FAMILY TO HER BEDSIDE

Six Years Ago, Thinking She Might Die, Says Texas Lady, But Now She Is a Well, Strong Woman and Praises Cardui For Her Recovery.

Royce City, Tex.—Mrs. Mary Killman, of this place, says: "After the birth of my little girl... my side commenced to hurt me. I had to go back to bed. We called the doctor. He treated me... but I got no better. I got worse and worse until the misery was unbearable... I was in bed for three months and suffered such agony that I was just drawn up in a knot... I told my husband if he would get me a bottle of Cardui I would try it... I commenced taking it, however, that evening I called my family about me... for I knew I could not last many days unless I had a change for the better. That was six years ago and I am still here and am a well, strong woman, and I owe my life to Cardui. I had only taken half the bottle when I began to feel better. The misery in my side got less... I continued right on taking the Cardui until I had taken three bottles and I did not need any more for I was well and never felt better in my life... I have never had any trouble from that day to this."

Do you suffer from headache, backache, pains in sides, or other discomforts, each month? Or do you feel weak, nervous and fagged-out? If so, give Cardui, the woman's tonic, a trial.

We are having beautiful weather and farmers are making good use of it. Taking care of the bounteous harvest raised this year. If it were not for the terrible war cloud resting on the horizon shutting out all the light and joy, we would be a happy contented people.

From Camp Shelby.

Nov 15, 1917.

To The Adair County News:

Camp Shelby the Ideal training Camp for the strengthening of the U. S. Army is blazing with the spirit of progress. The efficiency of the officers and patriotic enthusiasm of the recruits have changed the camp from a wilderness of pines and small marshes to a large city of tents, officers headquarters, hospitals, mess halls, theaters and the friendly walls of the many Y. M. C. A. buildings.

The works of the artillerymen in which I am stationed is handicapped for the want of the real 6 inch Howitzer but not being able to get them we are satisfied to work with a dummy. In other words, a log placed on two wagon wheels, built on the same proportion as the real piece.

We have a camp here with the population of 40,000 men under the command at present Brigadier General Whitney. The many different maneuvers of the men is very interesting, the training of infantry, machine gun, Cavalry, medical corps, and ammunition, gradually taking on the aspect of a body of men becoming efficient for the great task before them.

Every Wednesday is a holiday for the soldier. On this day different Batteries, companies, troops meet in combat for the victory of base ball games, foot ball, tug of war, relay races, in fact ideal olympic games take place on this eventful day to create a thirst for success that will be needed to bring glory somewhere in France.

Saturday the day of days when every man and all of his possessions must meet the approval of the different commanders. Men shaving, washing clothes, cutting hair, shining shoes, cleaning teeth, furling tents, all done in a spirit as if it was the eleventh hour and fifty-ninth minute.

All personal possessions must be laid on each individual's cot for the personal inspection of the commander.

All must have tooth paste and brush, soap, clean clothes and towels, mess kits must be like china, ware on the buffet. A formation is called at 10 a. m. and all men fall in with a feeling that they have left something undone that will meet the eye of the inspector and desire him of the freedom of Sunday a day of visiting as he chooses. All men who fall on the inspection laugh and say they would rather stay in Camp, and the rest rush back to quarters with the anticipation of the eventful day following.
